

"At the individual level, social movements are emotional movements.

..the big bang of a social movement starts with the transformation of emotion into action."

p13, Manuel Castells, "Networks of outrage and hope - social movements in the internet age" 2012, Polity Press, Cambridge 18 “So commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these words of mine. Tie them to your hands and wear them on your forehead as reminders. 19 Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are on the road, when you are going to bed and when you are getting up. 20 Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, 21 so that as long as the sky remains above the earth, you and your children may flourish in the land the Lord swore to give your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 11; 18-21 (NLT)

- Get into groups of 3 or 4, especially with people you feel safe or comfortable with.
- Time for discussion - 20mins
- Time for commitment - 15 mins

- What does this mean for you personally?
- What does this mean for the role or job which you do?
- How will this change what you do and how you do it?
- What are the barriers or obstacles to progress?

For commitment

- Complete the card with the one thing you will do upon leaving here.
- Choose to be accountable to one person or the group for that one thing.
- Exchange contact details and “spur one another on.”
